

EU STUDENTS

The European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), allows you to be partially reimbursed for your medical expenses and have access to public health professionals during your stay in France. You can be treated under the same conditions and rates as French nationals.

The EHIC is free and personal. To get yours, you must contact the social security office in charge of your healthcare benefits in your country of residence, at least two months before coming to France.

If you don't receive your EHIC before leaving, remember to get the S1 form from your home country's social security office to join the French social security system.

The EHIC does not guarantee free healthcare. Some charges will remain at your expense, which can be extremely high in the event of hospitalization or repatriation.

NON EU STUDENTS

Short stay / Schengen Visa

It allows you to travel and move around freely in the Schengen area for 3 months. To get this visa you must have a travel health insurance that covers you for the duration of your stay for any medical care and/or emergency hospital care, as well as medical repatriation.

For short stays a travel health insurance is required.

Long stay / Long stay Visa:

For long stays, when applying for a long-stay visa (more than 3 months), you will benefit from the French social security system for the partial coverage of your medical expenses.

Social Security registration is free of charge and mandatory for all non EU-resident students.

To register, please visit: etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr

Social Security does not reimburse everything, some medical charges will remain at your expense which can be extremely high in case of hospitalization or repatriation.

HOW DOES HEALTHCARE WORK IN FRANCE?

The French social security does not cover all your medical expenses.

It is meant to protect you from unexpected situations by covering your medical expenses. It covers 15 to 80 % of your medical expenses depending on the care provided: medical consultation, hospitalization, medical treatment...

Reimbursements in France can be broken down into two parts:

- The mandatory part: covered by Social Security
- The complementary part: also called 'ticket modérateur' which remains at your expense.

3 DAYS HOSPITALIZATION WITH SURGERY:

Cost € 4 474*

*for an institution that charges social security rates

SOCIAL SECURITY COVERS:

THE MANDATORY PART 80%

-24€ DEDUCTIBLE

SOIT € 3 556

SOCIAL SECURITY DOES NOT COVER:

THE COMPLEMENTARY PART

80% OR € 894

+ HOSPITAL DAILY FEE OF €20/DAY

or € 20 x 3 days = € 60

= REMAINING COST € 978

Fully or partially covered by your complementary health insurance
